

The Frankfurt Society for New Music invites you:

„Partisan Critique“ bei den Darmstädter Ferienkursen.

The Frankfurt Society for New Music (fgnm) in cooperation with AK Critical Musicology (University of Frankfurt) hosts an excursion to the Darmstadt Summer Courses for New Music. The fgnm offers scholarships to attend the concerts and workshops.

The programme of the festival will be accompanied from 4 to 9 August by a series of discussions and courses focusing on the potentials and problems of contemporary music criticism. The members of the international collective "partisan notes", who are establishing an international platform for contemporary music and criticism, are invited to give the workshops.

This programme is open to all with a lively interest in the music of our time. The scholarships cover attendance at the Darmstadt Summer Course concerts between 4 and 9 August and participation in the courses and discussions organised by fgnm and partisan notes, which will accompany the concerts. Private accommodation in Frankfurt or Darmstadt can be requested from the fgnm. Preference for scholarships will be given to members of the fgnm.

We sincerely thank the International Music Institute Darmstadt (IMD) and the friends and sponsors of the IMD for making the scholarships possible!
